Service Framework for Cardiovascular Health and Wellbeing

The Department is developing a range of service frameworks. The Service Framework for Cardiovascular Health and Wellbeing is the first to be developed, and it has now been launched for public consultation.

The Service Framework for Cardiovascular Health and Wellbeing sets out 44 standards in relation to the prevention, assessment, diagnosis, treatment, care, rehabilitation and palliative care of individuals/communities who currently have or are at greater risk of developing cardiovascular disease.

Below is the full document for consultation, as well as a summary of the 44 standards and a consultation response questionnaire.

Public Consultation Document

- Service Framework for Cardiovascular Health and Wellbeing \(PDF 1.27 MB\)
- Summary of standards \(PDF 92.8 KB\)
- Easy Access Document \(PDF 3.31MB\)

Consultation Response Questionnaire

- Consultation Response Questionnaire \(PDF 238 KB\)
- Consultation Response Questionnaire \(MS Word 380 KB\)

An easy access version of the service framework is also being developed

The closing date for responses is Tuesday 30 September 2008
